1) 3 Person Cattle Penning

The competition will be on a timed basis, 3-minute time limit. The 4th place time will act as the elimination time. A 1-minute warning will be given. Each team will consist of three (3) riders. A team must cut out from the herd and pen three (3) cattle assigned to them. A team may call for time with only 1 or 2 cattle penned. Team may not pen wrong number cattle. To call for time, one rider must raise hand for the flag as the horse's nose crosses the opening of the pen. Riding a horse completely into the pen will disqualify the team. However, time continues until all unpenned cattle are on the cattle side of the starting line. Cattle will be bunched on the cattle side of the starting line before time begins. The flagger will raise flag to signal when arena is ready. As the contestant's gallop across starting line they will be given their cattle number by the announcer.

Riders are committed once they enter the arena. Time begins when any rider crosses the starting line. Once committed to the cattle, the team is completely responsible for their animals. Riding a horse completely into the catch pen will disqualify the team. No more than 4 head will be allowed across the foul line.

#2) 2 Person Cattle Penning

The competition will be on a timed basis with a 3-minute time limit. The 4th place time will act as the elimination time. A 1-minute warning will be given. Each team will consist of 2 riders who upon entering the arena will be given their cattle number by the announcer. The team will have 30 seconds to view their cattle prior to time starting. Time will begin when the first rider enters the holding pen or if the 30 second time period expires prior to entering the pen. Team will cut the 3 assigned animals out of the holding pen into the arena. The 3 animals must first be taken past the catch pen, and then be put into the catch pen. No more than 4 head of cattle will be allowed in the arena. The wrong numbered animal must be returned to the holding pen before the team can pen their animals. To call for time, one rider must raise their hand for the flag as the horse's nose crosses the opening of the catch pen. If four teams are unable to pen 3 cattle, awards will be named according to the fastest time made by the teams penning 2 cattle. If one team pens 3 cattle within the allotted 3 minutes, that team will take precedence over 2 cattle, regardless of time. Riding a horse completely into the catch pen will disqualify the team. More than 4 head in arena will result in disqualification. Teams may not pen wrong numbered cattle.

#3) Calf Branding

The competition will be on a timed basis with a 6-minute time limit. The 4th place time will act as the elimination time. A 1-minute warning will be given. Each team will consist of a four-person crew: Two to rope the first calf, the other two on the ground. Team members will exchange places for the second animal. Each team will first head and then heel a total of one animal each. The head catch can be around either the neck or neck and one front leg. The hind catch must be from behind the shoulders back either around the flank or on one or both heels. There will be no penalty for bad catches. All 4 feet must be within the stretched ropes; if a foot slips out of the stretched rope it must be replaced in the rope before the animal is branded. Both the front and hind feet are the only legal stretch allowed before the animal is branded or a penalty will be applied. The ground crew must remain in the designated area while the animal is being roped. The ground crew can pick up a dropped rope and return it to the ropers without a penalty if the ground crew is back in the designated area by the time the animal is roped. After the second animal has been branded, it must be on its feet and free of the ropes, the iron must be back in the paint can and the ground crew must be back in the designated area before the judge signifies final time. Only the team and judges will be allowed in pens. Once contest has started, there will be no discussion with the judges. If a fence goes down, all 3 watches are stopped. Time will be recorded, all 3 watches cleared and restarted. The new time will be added to the first time.

A rib brand will be applied on the right rib. This brand which in no way denotes any ownership.

The following will result in disqualification

- 30 seconds for a dropped iron.

The competition will be on a timed basis, 3-minute time limit. The 4th place time will act as the elimination time. A 1-minute warning will be given. A team will consist of three people. At that time, the starting number will be announced. The number will be announced 2 more times for a total of 3 times. The team will start with the starting number and continue in numerical order. For example: Your number is 5. You must first sort out 5, then 1, 2, 3, 4. It is permissible to stop sorting any time and hold cattle already sorted until the clock runs out.
